I understand and agree with the following statements:

- My dependents are not eligible for any coverage for which I am not covered.
- My dependents, including stepchildren, foster children and those over the maximum age, are eligible for coverage based on policy provisions. Eligibility for my dependents over the maximum age will be verified when claims are submitted. (except for Florida)
- If I cancel medical coverage for myself or my dependents, and then request coverage at a later date, I and my dependents will be considered a late enrollee. As a late enrollee, I or my dependents may not enroll until the next annual open enrollment period or may be subject to the preexisting condition exclusion. However, I will not be considered a late enrollee for employee or dependent coverage (and will not have to wait until the next annual open enrollment period) if: (a) enrollment is requested under one of the special enrollment rights; (b) request is made within the time period specified for that special enrollment right; and (c) any required information or proof is furnished. Refer to your booklet for more details.
- If I cancel dental coverage, I or my dependents may enroll at a later date; however, enrolling late will affect the level of dental benefits.
- If I cancel any type of life or disability coverage, I may apply at a later date; however, I must provide proof of good health at my own expense and coverage will only become effective subject to approval from Principal Life Insurance Company.
- If I cancel coverage, I cannot under any circumstance enroll in the policy once I have retired.
- If the group policy requires that I make contributions, I authorize my employer to deduct them from my pay.
- If I knowingly provide false or misleading information, I may be guilty of insurance fraud, which is punishable by law. (except for Virginia)
